

An Overview of the Activities of Regal Ventures, Inc.

- Organized the production and scheduling of a touring music team “Gentle Way” for Gardner Webb University;
- Organized, produced and scheduled “Son Company”, a contemporary music and drama team travelling the eastern states for three years;
- Managed a roster of youth speakers and variety performers;
- Planned, developed and directed Orlando’s Kingdom Youth Conference series from 1985 to 2005. This four-day event challenged young people from throughout the southeastern US with variety programming of internationally known speakers and artists. The Kingdom series set the standard for a number of national and regional conferences by other organizations.
- Wrote and illustrated study materials for youth groups throughout the US and Canada.
- Planned, developed and directed music, drama and teaching events for youth throughout the southeastern states;
- Orchestrated the beginnings of the contemporary Christian concert market in Charlotte, producing concert events throughout the Piedmont with the most prominent names in Contemporary Christian Music.
- Worked with Carowinds in the establishment of the park’s annual “Christian Music Day” which has become one of it’s biggest attractions.
- Worked with the NC Baptist state convention to develop and produce youth events that have attracted in excess of 20,000 young people.
- Developed New Song’s annual “X-treme” Youth Conference Series which currently draws over 15,000 teens annually;
- Have produced concert and training events on the properties of: Paramount Carowinds, Wet ‘n Wild Waterpark (Orlando), Gatlinburg Convention Center, Charlotte Convention Center, Heritage USA (Fort Mill, NC), Virginia Beach Convention Center, Hard Rock Cafe Concert Hall (Orlando), Sea World (Orlando) and a large variety of venues throughout the Carolinas.
- Currently manage noted author/speaker Cindi Wood and schedule her appearances throughout the U.S., Canada and Germany;
- Developed, produced the original Kings Mountain NC street drama “CrossWalk, the Trail of Amazing Grace” with the assistance of over 200 volunteers and the involvement of area churches and civic groups. Called “the southeast’s most unusual Passion play”, this event is financially supported in part by individual and business donations and the KM Tourism Development Authority.
