

Sugar Reef is a GO if you enjoy...

Fresh breezes and the sound of the surf

Food and furniture that say where you are

A break from commercialism

The Caribbean episode of "Animal Planet"

Tasting exotic fruits straight from the tree

Losing yourself in a book, the stars, your lover

Diving coral reefs, hiking a volcano

Taxi rides in the beds of converted pickups

Dancing with locals and barefoot yachties

Getting away from it all

Unique experiences, for lifetime memories

Sugar Reef is a NO if you want...

Total climate control, as if you never left home

The same global look from Bali to the Bahamas

To shop the duty-free stores

To avoid any and all bugs, bats and lizards

To eat only processed and packaged foods

To find a flat screen in your room

24/7 mobile data

A performance vehicle at the curb

"Guests only" clubs

Direct flights only

A typical resort; hey, you know what you'll get
