From One Happy Island to One Delicious Island
Welcome Executive Chef Harmen

CHEF HARMEN GIESKE

Originally born and raised in the Netherlands. Chef Harmen, discovered his passion for the Latin American and Caribbean Cuisine many years ago, which made him embark on a journey of the Caribbean Islands, where he has lived for 14 years. During his travels, he developed his skills on creating healthy, yet flavorful and colorful dishes.

Food is art! That is the slogan, which Chef Harmen lives by and creates his delicious dishes everyday. We are very pleased to welcome Chef Harmen at the Holiday Inn Resort Aruba - making your stay that much more delicious!

Did you know: Dande

'Oh Dande un bon Anja nobo' (Oh Dande happy new year). The traditional music from Aruba is the Dande, which is played to welcome the New Year. This is a true local tradition since there is no other island in the Caribbean that has a Dande tradition. The musicians normally visit Aruban homes right after midnight fireworks and lyrics vary depending on how many family members are present, since the lyrics mention each person's name and wishes them a happy New year filled with blessings, health and prosperity.
