Single Malts

Auchentoshan 12 year old

Triple distilled and matured for over twelve years. A Lowland single malt whisky with the tempting Aroma of toasted almonds, caramelized toffee and the signature smooth, delicate, Auchentoshan taste.

Palate: Smooth & sweet with a hint of tangerine & lime

Finish: Gingery & slightly drying with a pleasant lingering nuttiness

Bowmore 12 year old

Colour: Warm Amber

Nose: Subtle notes of lemon & honey are bound together with the distinctive Bowmore smokiness

Palate: Warm & delicious with subtle dark chocolate & Peat smoke

Finish: Long & Subtle

Finlaggan Old Reserve

Finlaggan is very much the SECRET Islay.

Colour: very pale straw with lemony-yellow highlights
Nose: Full & Pungent with an earthy smokiness & fresh hints of ozone
Finish: Long & smooth with a smoky-burnt oakiness & a very slight edge of richness

Tantallan

Colour: Amber with gold highlights
Nose: Medium bodied, rich, sweet & toffee like, lightly peated with an appley character.

Flavour: Sweet, rich, quite full bodied, round & smooth with a Slightly unctuous oily texture

Finish: Long & sweet with a toffee character & a cherry tail

The Dalmore

In 1870 Dalmore became the first malt whisky ever to be exported to Australia, to be precise Nose: Malty and sweetish. A faint hint of smoke in the background.
Taste: Starts a little thin, but grows more solid in the centre. Hardly any sweetness though.

Aberfeldy Connoisseurs Choice 1990

Nose: Sweet, malt aromas with green apples and cut grass. A delicate spiciness with traces of chocolate and hazelnuts.
Taste: Sweet with an initial smoky note. Some herbal and oak flavours present.

Balblair 2000 Vintage

Aroma: Pears, pineapple and green apples; hints of honey and vanilla.
Palate: Sweet, honey, floral notes combined with hints of coconut and rich spices.
Finish: Smooth, long lasting and warming.

Ben Nevis 10 Years Old

Nose: Fresh and quite dry. A supple greenness with soft leafy notes with a rich fruitiness. Hints of orange and Seville marmalade with a light vinous character and nutty undertones.

Palate: Gentle dryness, toffee and some orange on the palate, gentle but firm whiff of peat on the palate.

Finish: Medium- long, smooth, toffee and caramel notes balanced with a touch of mocha and dark chocolate

Old Pulteny 12 Years old

AROMA: high intensity and complexity, green apples, toffee, spicy aromatic. Dry with a hint of sea air.

TASTE: Dry, medium bodied and smooth, redolent of honey and cream, faintly salty with slight sherry note and a long lasting warm finish.

Tomatin 12 Years Old

Nose: The complex bouquet contains rich malt and fruity aromas with just a hint of peatiness.

Taste: The palate is rewarded with a unique combination of attractive flavours – a balance of apples, pears and malt, with a gentle hint of nuttiness enhanced by the subtle use of sherry wood. The result is a wonderfully rich and elegant taste producing a long and satisfying finish.

Glengoyne 10 Years Old

Nose: Sweet, with toffee and popcorn aromas. Slightly nutty, with fresh green apples coming through Initial Taste: Clean. Green apples and grass with a hint of sweet liquorice

Chivas Regal , Johnnie Walker , Famous Grouse and many more

Single Malts

The Isle Of Jura

Aged 16 Years-Sumptuous yet gently spiced
Nose: Malty and buttery. Some roasted coffee beans
Taste: Smooth & quite sweet in the start, growing grittier in the centre. A very smooth mouth feel.

Highland Park

Aged 12 Years
Nose: Sweet (honeyed) and malty. A little smoky with a hint of organics now and then. Spices. Very faint farmy notes in the background. Some meaty notes after five minutes. Growing complexity.
Taste: Sweet and solid start, quickly evolving into a dry, fruity and smoky centre. Hints of peat

Laphroaig

10 year old- Most richly flavoured of all scotch whiskies
Nose: Loads of organics, but some fruits as well - making it a lovely balanced dram. Some meaty notes. Surprisingly complex for a peat monster. five. water breaks it up, before releasing more light fruits (water melon). Ah, and the development goes on. More herbal notes appear after ten minutes.

Some pastry sweetness as well. Taste: Peaty, sweet and fruity . More leather and especially smoke in the centre. dry finish

The Macallan

12 Years old-Extraordinary smooth, delicate yet complex single malt
Nose: This is a light one - clearly from bourbon casks. Hints of mint , menthol and apple. Taste: It's light and fruity (and maybe slightly nutty)

Glenmorangie

Renowned all over the world for its elegant and floral spirit ,a single malt whisky of exquisite finesse and alluring complexity

Nose: Clean. Early summer fruits - Mirabelle plums. Malty after a few minutes of breathing. Lots of pleasant elements,
Taste: Malty, smooth and quite solid. Perhaps a tad nutty.

The Glenlivet

Nose: Polished, malty with hints of apples and other fruits. A bashful sweetness with a whiff of dust.

Taste: Fruity and a little smoky in the background. Gentle aromas of summer meadows and tropical fruit with notes of vanilla

Tamdhu

Nose: Malty and quite gentle. Sweet with traces of honey and roasted barley
Taste: Malty and smooth with some liquorice underneath

Glen Ord

Glen Ord comes from the small village Muir of Ord just outside Inverness in the Highlands.
