HOLIDAY MAKEOVER

At the Holiday Inn Resort Aruba we are constantly thinking about our guests, so we have been optimizing our property to improve your experience at our resort.

We have replaced the guest room mattresses with Sealy's. We've also incorporated new chairs and contemporary décor at the Corals Restaurant. In addition, our lobby has been redecorated and refurbished.

Our next project is still a secret, but stay tuned to find out more about our future plans!

REFRESHMENT STARTS AT PURO COFFEE

There's nothing like waking up to a cup of freshly brewed coffee from Puro Coffee. Our newest coffee outlet is here to stay! You can enjoy an extensive selection coffee treats, and combine them with sandwiches, salads, Paninis, or any of our delicious snacks. Not a coffee person? At Puro Coffee there are options for everyone; from hot chocolate to delicious gelatos. The options are endless! Take any of these grab and go items and refuel your energy to explore our happy island!

CARIBBEAN FLAVORS “CONNECTED BY WATER”

While on vacation, you face the tough decision to pick a place for lunch where you can please everybody’s tastes. It’s not easy, is it? Well at the Sea Breeze Restaurant & Bar we have the perfect solution for you. Join us and allow your palate to drift through the exquisitely combined tastes “Connected by water”. A menu crafted by our culinary talent featuring dishes from the North and South America, Asia, Europe and the Caribbean such as “Keshi Yena” a local dish of Gouda cheese stuffed with pulled chicken, capers, olives, tomato, cashews, prunes, fried polenta and fried plantains. You’ll love our “Antillean Salt Fish” Johnny cake, with diced potatoes, pickled onions and fried plantains. Our chef Aldwin’s specialty is the “Tamarind-glazed grilled mahi-mahi” with spicy mango-papaya sauce, red onions, rice and vegetables, this combination will be your favorite for sure. You will not regret this experience and you’ll be the hero that saved the day with the perfect place for all tastes!

BIG JOURNEYS BEGIN IN SMALL PLACES

There’s not much online about Aruba’s native language Papiamentu but in the Holiday Reporter we have a segment called “INN Papiamentu Lessons” where you will find phrases and words you might need during your vacation here. Continue reading and learn Papiamentu phrases with the Holiday Reporter!

INN PAPIAMENTO LESSONS

It’s always cool to be able to say some things in other languages. So we figured you would need these phrases for your trip to Aruba.

“Aruba ta dushi!” (Aruba tah do-she) – Aruba is fun!

“Con bai?” (Con bye?) – How are you?

“Masha Danki!” (Mash-ah than-key) – Thank you very much!

These will get you closer to becoming part of our little slice of happiness!
