

Karibu !

We are delighted to welcome you to our restaurant in the heart of our little paradise : a place to eat and drink with friends, family but also to meet people.

Throughout your stay with us, you will be able to discover local cultures and traditions through our cuisine and our team.

Their smiles and their sense of service are part of their culture and they will not hesitate to transmit to you this communicative joie de vivre.

During the meals, the team in the kitchen under the orders of the Chef Anna, will make you discover the typical local flavors in a homemade menu composed of daily fresh products.

All the actors involved in the creation of dishes for vegetables, meat, and fish are local producers who use sustainable and eco friendly ways of production.

So, let yourself be tempted by our menu...
