SCENIC AIR EXCURSION DESCRIPTIONS

Turkana And Suguta, The Cradle Of Mankind

The most spectacular scenic flight. Up to the southern end of Lake Turkana, the worlds largest alkaline lake, regarded as the cradle of mankind. We do a circular flight over the famous Telika caldera, heading south to the active Teleki Volcano to lake Logipi. This is the start of the Suguta Valley, Kenya's last frontier. Two full circuits of Lake Logipi as there are excellent flocks of flamingos on the water. From Logipi, south over the Suguta river delta, its myriad of channels and colours. South to the weathered volcanic plugs and rock formations and contrasting shades of the Hood and Painted Valleys and the dunes of the Suguta Desert.

The Lakes Of The Rift Valley

Scenic flight over Laikipia to the southern end of Lake Baringo, low level to Lake Bogoria, a haven for Flamingoes, two low level circuits of the lake. Southwards onto Lake Nakuru, low level scenic flight over the lake and then over the acacia forest at the south end, where there are frequently Rhino on the shores. From Nakuru heading north east, circle to gain altitude before flying over the escarpment towards Sosian and Loisaba and due east to Lewa which is a really lovely scenic flight. Over Lewa, with two circuits around the swamps and the Ngare Ndare forest, always guaranteed to see Rhino and Elephant.

The Mysterious Lorian Swamps

Lorian Swamps are probably the most unexplored feature in eastern Kenya. Out towards Merti following the Ewaso Ngiro river at 500feet. The contrasts of landscape and fauna are dramatic, particularly once you get to the Lorian Delta which then explodes into the most amazing green waterways. It is around 40 square kms in area, stunningly beautiful, almost like a miniature Okavango Delta. Little is known about the swamp, due to the hostile terrain. It is not a protected area possibly due to the fact that it is impossible to live there. The swamp is infested with malarial mosquitos and with vectors of the organisms that cause bilharzia. It is home to crocodiles and is visited by many of the large savannah mammals. A full circuit around the swamps and back to Kalama.
