Chef Marti Mongiello cscs (SS/SW), USN, Ret.

Biography:

Chef Marti Mongiello served presidents at the White House and had an amazing career in the Navy. He has cooked in the most prestigious houses imaginable as well as war zones throughout the world. Marti retired after 30 years with the Navy then managed Camp David Resort and Conference Center, working as a White House Chef. He is a Master Certified Food Executive (MCFE), Certified Professional Food Manager (CPFM), Certified Household Manager (CHM), ServSafe Certified Manager, and Certified Executive Chef (CEC) who also found the time to earn an MBA degree.

Marti was the Executive Chef to the President of the United States of America and a Manager of the world's most exclusive resort, a butler, housekeeper, Presidential Aide, and bartender at The Camp David Resort, hidden atop the Catoctin Mountains chain. Holding numerous security clearances, Chef Marti was elevated to a Top Secret, Yankee White, Category II SSBI clearance at 27 years old and began shopping, cooking and serving the most influential leaders on earth. His training spans nuclear weapons, nuclear power, biological, and chemical warfare. He has worked with the Trumps, Bushes, Clintons, and Obamas starting as early as 1993 at the White House Military Office.

While running the Inn of the Patriots he has honed the ability to prepare full dinners just as they were served to various presidents throughout history. He can present a Lincoln dinner from his first year in office followed by a desert that Ronald Reagan cherished. These gastronomic links to White House history are a unique way to experience a taste of what it was like then. Chef Marti has an uncanny knack for allowing us to see inside the worlds of various Presidents. Between the tasty dishes, amazing rare pictures and captivating stories this is a very privileged look at the highest levels of our government. There is plenty of humor and good cheer, too.
