“The Essex Street Inn is as quaint, friendly, accommodating and clean as any small city Inn that we have ever done business with. It is a short walk to one of the most beautiful downtown districts on the north shore of Boston. There are plenty of fine dining and casual restaurants within walking distance as well. High Liner Foods held its Annual Sustainability Council meeting in Newburyport during 2011, 2012 and 2014. About 25 visiting guests and employees stayed at the Essex Street Inn each of these years and totally enjoyed the colonial ambience of the Inn. We look forward to staying there again for future meetings!”
