

Opus at a Glance

Named "Best in Service" and "Top 25 Hotels in Canada," OPUS Vancouver is more than somewhere to stay, it is somewhere to be. With striking design, personality plus, and a fabulous location in the heart of hip Yaletown in downtown Vancouver, OPUS appeals to savvy travelers who like their lodgings with a little more flavor.

We Don't Do Beige

At OPUS Vancouver we think cookie-cutters are for baking, so we threw ours away when we designed our award-winning 96 room boutique hotel. A play of pervasive patterns and rich colors emphasize the seductive and residential ambiance.

Sweeter than Candy

You won't find chocolate on the pillows here. In lieu of the more traditional turn-down service, we place a playful spin on your pillow. Crowd pleasers include Pop Rocks and a variety of Pez dispensers.

Yaletown

Every metropolis has one-that one neighbourhood that seems to pulsate with an extra vibrant intensity.

New York has SoHo, Paris has the Left Bank, London has Kensington, and Vancouver has Yaletown.

This hip neighborhood in the heart of downtown is an elite 12-block historic district home to over 60 of the city's most stylish restaurants, boutiques and spas.

Canada Line: How To Get Here

OPUS is located directly across from the Yaletown-Roundhouse Canada Line subway station. Our guests travel from Vancouver International Airport to our doorstep in 22 minutes, and reach the business district and convention center in just 3 minutes.
