

SAYULITA

MEXICO

*Sayulita
One and Only*

Sayulita was “discovered” in the late 1960s with the construction of Mexican Highway 200. Today, Sayulita is a prosperous growing village of approximately 4,000 residents.

Hailed as a popular off-the-beaten-path travel destination, Sayulita offers a variety of activities such as surfing, horseback riding, mountain biking, jungle hiking, paddle boarding, jungle canopy tours, diving, snorkeling and fishing. Golf & tennis (facilities) are also near by.

An unpretentious mecca for beginner surfers of all ages, this quaint town attracts upscale tourists with its dazzling sunsets, numerous art galleries, and restaurants as well as backpacking travelers from around the world looking for an authentic Mexican experience.

Anyone who has visited Sayulita knows that this picturesque fishing village has a curious and eclectic character found nowhere else. With its cobblestone streets hosting dogs, chickens, and playing children, Sayulita is a half-century away from nearby Puerto Vallarta and its huge resorts and discos. Frequented by native Cora and Huichol peoples; traveling craftsmen as well as international tourists Sayulita is the crown jewel and “it Town” of the newly designated Riviera Nayarit; the coastal corridor from Litibu to San Blas. This charming little town offers a unique and friendly experience to its guests.

Sayulita Weddings

Sayulita has become a highly sought after wedding destination because of its gorgeous venue its own quaint Catholic church in the central plaza. Alemndros is the ideal place to accommodate all your guest in one place.

SAYULITA BEACHES

Sayulita's Main Beach

Sayulita's "Main Beach" is nestled in a peaceful palm tree-lined bay just off the center square. This is the busiest part of the beach where you can learn how to surf, paddle board, among many other activities. Other beaches, like Playa Malpasos a mile long of untouched beach with no construction, offer an unrivaled secluded and relaxing experience. Not too far is Playa Secreta, a small beach only accessible by foot when the tide is low through some natural rock caverns. Sayulita's North Beach is only 2 1/2 blocks from Los Almendros and is the best part to be if you want to be surrounded by some people but not too many, and only 4 minute walk to Main Beach. Playa Los Muertos is surrounded by Sayulitas folkloric cemetery covered by a lush jungle, popular for its giant 30 feet rocks to dive off.
