Choice Privileges[®] Meeting Planner Rewards (the "Program") is available at participating properties offering Choice Privileges points for meeting planners of a qualifying event ("Meeting Planner"). A "Meeting Planner" is any individual Choice Privileges Member who (a) either on behalf of himself/herself or a third party, books through any channel a Qualifying Event at specific designated "meeting friendly" participating properties only; and (b) is either identified as the "Planner" of such Qualifying Event in the applicable Contract, as defined below, or substituted for such Planner in accordance with these terms and conditions. A "Qualifying Event" is any group booked at a property designated as "meeting friendly" (each, "a participating hotel") with at least ten (10) sleeping rooms on a single night and a meeting room at a participating hotel and is reserved by, reflected within, and paid for in accordance with a written contract executed by authorized representatives of the group and the participating hotel, which contract explicitly states that the Program will apply to such group event (the "Contract"). Exceptions are accepted when their reservation is made on ChoiceHotels.com where contracts are not applicable. In this event, planner is the person handling the reservation on behalf of the group. Meeting Planners are eligible to earn 4 points per U.S. $1 spent on "eligible charges" during a Qualifying Event at a participating hotel. "Eligible charges" include hotel rooms, food and beverage, and meeting rooms (exclusive of taxes and any other additional fees, incidental charges, gratuities and related charges). A list of participating properties designated as "meeting friendly" can be found on ChoiceHotels.com/Planner. Meeting Planners can earn a maximum of 200,000 Choice Privileges points if they spend $50,000 based on an earn ratio of 4 points per $1 spent on eligible charges. Points will be awarded within 72 hours of submitting the request. It is the Meeting Planner's responsibility to comply with his or her own company policy and ethics concerning travel programs. The Meeting Planners are required to ensure that the property participates in Choice Privileges Meeting Planner Rewards and offers points on Qualifying Events. Only individuals (no corporations or organizations) are eligible to earn Choice Privileges points. Valid for new bookings only. Choice Hotels International, Inc. reserves the right to change, amend, or discontinue this program at any time, with or without notice, in its sole discretion.
