

The famous Portuguese maritime explorer Vasco da Gama set out to do what no European Voyager had done before - open a trade route from Portugal to the East.

Many thought it an impossible dream, but, in September 1499, Vasco da Gama proved them wrong and triumphantly returned laden with riches beyond imagination. Today, his memory and spirit live on at Grand Lapa, Macau.

With an irresistible selection of international and local tapa-style treats, Vasco is a rare, One-of-a-kind experience that even the Portuguese ancestors would be proud of.

We invite you to peruse our menu selections.

LEAVING HOME

Portuguese Algarve Sour
Brandy & Amarguinha Almond
Liqueur, Honey & Fresh Lemon Juice,
Egg White

The Algarve province in the south of Portugal used to be one of the European almond powerhouse - Vasco da Gama was born in the neighboring region of Sines. It was therefore logical to use one of Portugal's product in the cocktail that would represent the beginning of the journey. The gorgeous Amarguinha liqueur provides the primary almond flavor and the brandy gives its strength and power. The drink is meant to be soft and comfortable. A bit like home really!

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE

The Rhodesia Punch
Grilled Pineapple, Johnnie Walker
Black, Madeira, Lime Juice

Vasco da Gama was the first explorer to pass the Cape of Good hope and to land in Natal, South Africa. In December 1497; Vasco and his crew were the first European explorers to set foot in South Africa.

The Rhodesia Punch is meant to highlight one of South Africa's most beloved culinary culture; The Braai! Braai, from the Dutch word "Braden" means "to Roast, is a very social occasion and is practiced by many, even today... Often the meat is cured in pineapple juice before being heavily grilled.

This cocktail sought to capture this charred character of Braai, as well as using an "unknown" ingredient; the heavily grilled pineapple puree. This is something that is not very often used, and carries this heavy aroma. The peat in the Talisker and the Johnnie Walker Black helps to strengthen the "smoked" feeling!

The pineapple is a symbol of hospitality and prosperity!

MOZAMBIQUE

Maputo Julep

Banana Liqueur, Cashew Milk,
Bourbon, Brandy, Mint Leaves

Mozambique was once the largest producer of cashew nuts in the world; while nowadays, it has been ousted from this spot; the cashew nut remains an important part of life!

Vasco spent almost a month in Mozambique in march 1498. The Maputo Julep tries to combine two staples of Mozambique: banana and cashew and turns it into an ice cold dairy free treat that is reminiscent of Bailey's.

GETTING TO GOA

The Calicut Mule

Bols Genever, Dry Madeira, Carrot Juice, Cardamom, Fresh Lime Juice, Coriander Seeds, Ginger Beer

Vasco's arrival in Calicut on may 1648 is responsible for the opening of the spice trade between India and Europe and predates the arrival of other European naval powers by almost a century. So deep was his relation with India, that he was even given the title of the Governor of India. The Calicut mule integrates some typical Indian spices such as Cardamom, ginger and root vegetable, which a touch of its archrival, Dutch Genever. The drink is complex and refreshing. Reminiscent of India's arts & craft!

MACAO

Gate of Understanding

Chinese Rice Wine, Madeira, Apple Juice, Grand Marnier, Maple Syrup

It is Jorge Alvares who arrived in China first; but Portugal was only allowed to settle officially in Macao, with the blessing of the Ming court in 1557. Exactly thirty-three years after the death of Vasco da Gama.

The cocktail works with two fundamental taste of each country. Rice wine and Madeira! It is our most majestic cocktail; a powerful, strong combination of two very strong countries!

DISCOVERING
SOUTH EAST ASIA

Asian Fever

Hendrick's Gin, Litchi Juice, Peach
Liqueur, Pure Gold

Asia and especially China was a region of considerable interest to the Portuguese explorers and after the establishment of Macao, Portugal was effectively able to build a warehouse for the trade of goods between China, Japan, India and Europe.

The litchi is so strongly linked to the eastern empires; it is essential to include it in the drink that symbolise the relationship between Portugal and the East; the drink is mixed with a shimmering gold dust to represent all the richness that this region will come to represent for Europe.

MISSING HOME

Beirao Sling

Beirao, Calvados, Port Wine, Fresh
Lime & Lemon Juice

Every explorer eventually misses home; but home will never be same. The Beirao sling symbolizes exactly this. We took a classic Portuguese spice liqueur, Beirao, and mixed it in completely differently manner than that it is done in Portugal. It is home, but it feels a little different.

BACK HOME

Passion Fruit Poncha

White Cane Rum, Honey & Fresh
Lemon Juice, Fresh Grapefruit,
Fresh Passion Fruits

“Home is home.” Today, the Poncha is the classic drink from Madeira; from the fisherman to the business executive; all are drinking it! The beautiful irony is that, the word “Poncha” is of Sanskrit origin (पाञ्च - panc) meaning "five", as the drink was originally made with five ingredients: alcohol, sugar, lemon, water, and tea or spices.

How did this tradition come into the small island of Madeira, we will probably never know; all that is sure is that the world was never really the same again; it is why we added another quintessential ingredient to the classic Poncha, the passion fruit !
