

In a unique setting overlooking the cultured city of Cork, the Montenotte Hotel is the perfect choice for your business needs. Whether it is an informal meeting in Panorama Bistro & Terrace, a meeting with stunning views of Cork in The Gallery suite, an incentive group in our in house cinema 'The Cameo', we have something truly unique to offer.

The iconic Montenotte Hotel has transformed following a €5 million refurbishment to a standard that is second to none. Walking through the front door of the hotel one can't help but stop for just a moment to gasp at the stunning view of our cultured city of Cork. Our spectacular bar and restaurant, Panorama Bistro and Terrace, boasts breathtaking views out over the River Lee and city beyond.

What makes Montenotte Hotel unique? Some say it's our exquisitely refurbished rooms. Or our bar with the view. Or our in house cinema. Some think the uniqueness is in our location: a stroll from many of Cork's highlights, overlooking the beautiful city, but away from the noise and traffic. Others extol our restaurant with fresh, seasonal cuisine and fabulous cocktails.

Of course, we have everything you'd expect from Cork's freshest boutique hotel: free Wi-Fi; free parking; a leisure centre boasting a 20 metre swimming pool, sauna, Jacuzzi and gymnasium. And service. The kind of pampering and attention that will make you not want to go home.

HISTORY MEETS LUXURY

Montenotte Hotel in Cork, originally Lee House, was home to one of Cork's so called 'Merchant Princes'. The Princes were hugely influential in establishing Cork as a leading trade port, a heritage we proudly continue today. Our hinterland provides Montenotte Hotel with produce and ingredients we use on our daily menus. And of course, the Princes hand-picked prime locations for their houses, chosen to make the most of the wonderful Cork vistas.
