

FINCA ADALGISA
HOTEL, VINEYARD & WINERY

Finca Adalgisa is a little paradise situated within an old vineyard of Malbec vines which are over 100 years old. On the Finca we have a small winery, where we produce our own Malbec. Our wine can be enjoyed every evening at the Finca's wine bar and is only open for hotel guests. Finca Adalgisa is located in the village of Chacras de Coria, 20 minutes away from the city centre of Mendoza. It is at the heart of Mendoza's Wine Route, with many wineries and vineyards within easy reach. Our Finca offers the perfect combination between the rural lifestyle and living in a small, but lively village.

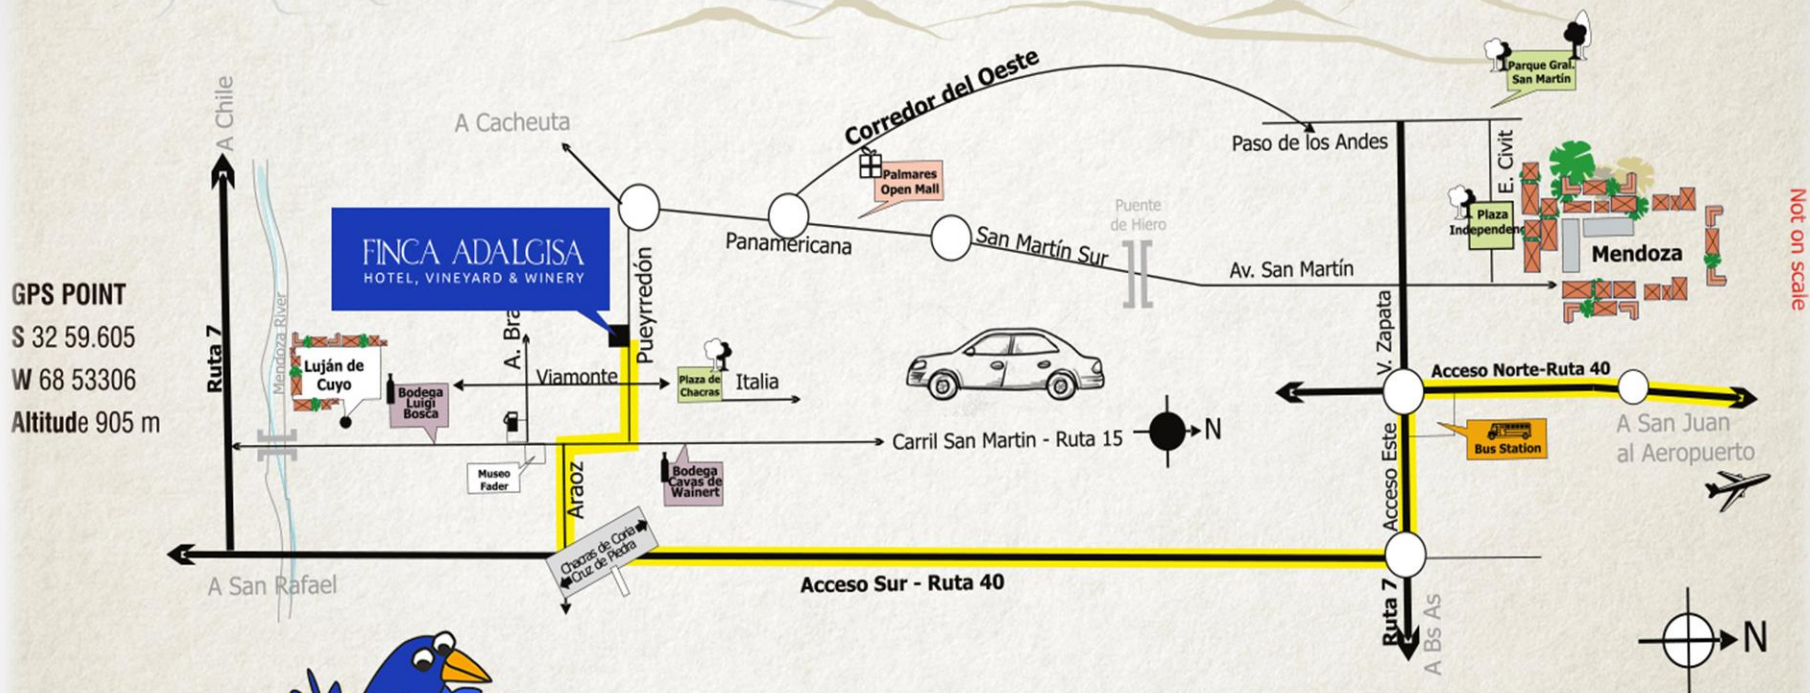

We are not only a very special hotel. We invite you to get to know our traditions like sharing a typical Argentinean barbecue with us, trying our home made empanadas, when they come out of the clay oven.

You are invited to have a chat with Gabriela Furlotti and the workers on our Malbec vineyard on the Finca. They take care of the vines and the olive trees and help us to elaborate our own wine and olive oil. Of course you may taste our wine, if you wish from different years and tell us what you think. Don't forget to taste the olive oil as well, since we're also very proud about it. During your stay at the Finca you should wonder through the Old House, with its library and get a sense of how our family lived here in the past.
