ABOUT OUR WEDDING SPECIALIST

After graduating Christelijke Hogeschool Noord Nederland (currently Stenden University) in 2005, Darienne packed in her degree in International Hospitality Management and entered the events and banqueting world at The Intercontinental Hotel in Madrid. After her blissful experience in Spain, she came back to her native island, Aruba, where she continued to grow professionally while occupying different positions all in the hospitality industry. Although she has managed different departments, her passion remains events in particular weddings. Darienne is an experienced events specialist, who's very organized with an eye for detail. She can sport the right personality to be able to keep the brides calm and the grooms on time, in so doing she is able to guide them in realizing the most unforgettable day of their lives.

As she always says "It is simple, I always aim for happily ever after!"
