FAQ's

What day of the week are the picnics available?

The Duke Mansion picnics are available any day of the week based on availability of private event bookings

May I reserve multiple baskets?

To allow each group to enjoy the grounds as much as possible, we permit only one basket per time block.

What are the options should it rain?

We are happy to check availability to reschedule your picnic to a new day up to 4 hours prior to the selected pick up time.

Do you require advance notice?

We do require a 48 business hours booking notice.

Where do we picnic?

We're happy to help guide you to our favorite picnic spots – there are many!

Are there any spaces that are off limits?

Use of any indoor space, covered porches, or privately reserved outdoor spaces are not included in this package as these are rented spaces by private events.

What are the next steps to book our picnic?

To book your picnic, please contact Cinthya Diaz-Soto at cdiaz@dukemansion.org

We will need the following information:

- Requested date
- Requested time of pick up
- Menu & Wine selection
- Contact email, phone number, and mailing address
- Completed Credit Card Authorization Form

Once booked, The Duke Mansion will send a Banquet Event Order to your attention with the details requested. The credit card will not be charged until the day of the event.
