

About the Venice Suites Family of Properties

Venice, California is one of the most energetic and exciting places on the planet --- and the Venice Suites family of vacation properties is the best way to experience everything that Venice has to offer. Each of the five properties feature modern, fully furnished apartments that have all the comforts of home, while showcasing innovative decor and abundant amenities. Each property has its own distinct personality so that guests can experience Venice exactly how they want to. Whether they want a sanctuary away from the action. Whether they want to be in the heart of Venice. Whether they are budget conscious or they want to splurge on luxury. The Venice Suites family has the property for them.

All of the suites are just steps from the world famous Venice Boardwalk and beach. Guests can immerse themselves in all of the action just outside their doors and then retreat to their secluded suites to recharge and rejuvenate. The properties offer countless features that Venice Beach visitors want most like rooftop relaxation, free high speed Internet, a wide choice of suite floor plans, modern kitchens, free long distance calling within the U.S. and much more.
