January 24, 2014; Victoria, B.C. – The Hotel Grand Pacific's new "Boudoir Package" for Valentine's Day weekend is turning heads as an exciting new take on a traditional weekend getaway. Featuring a boudoir photo shoot and professional makeup with Victoria's renowned Bella Boudoir, this racy package is taking romance to a new level.

Victoria's idealistic Inner Harbour, the hotel's Boudoir Package combines a one-night stay and dining credit with a one-hour boudoir photography experience, including professional makeup and photo shoot. A luxury suite will be set up for Bella Boudoir to photograph clients in throughout the weekend.

This sexy trend in photography has recently seen an incline in popularity among women interested in creating sensual images in boudoir style. "We see such diversity in the women we shoot," said Karen McNeil, Bella Boudoir owner and primary photographer. "The Bella team is passionate about empowering women through creating artistic, original images that help each client see, feel, and appreciate their individual beauty."

For reservations, please call 1-800-663-7550 to book today or visit www.hotelgrandpacific.com/packages for more info. The "Boudoir Package" is $269.00 based on double occupancy and is available for booking from February 14 – 16, 2014. Deadline for booking is February 8, 2014.

Conveniently located on the Inner Harbour in downtown Victoria, the Hotel Grand Pacific is the perfect choice for the lifestyle traveller seeking an alternative from the traditional branded hotel stay. With 304 spacious guestrooms and suites, the Hotel Grand Pacific is renowned for delivering an exceptional and personalized guest service experience.
