Fourth Annual Chef of the Year Award Dinner

Sign up now for your place at this most prestigious award dinner—with murder on the menu.

Four finalists: Chef Conrad, Chef Jean Marie, Chef Jonathon & Chef Milo

As we begin our evening with a wine reception, the air is filled with excitement. Each of us has been given a special invitation to this event. Everyone who has influence in the Hospitality Industry is in attendance. Some attend to be seen. Others attend out of curiosity. A new Chef of the Year will tour with a new cookbook, receive a large cash prize and become famous. An ordinary evening turns ugly as ego and greed become motives for winning at any cost. Our four finalists lash out at each other with accusations, then threats of violence. Guests include the President of the Association of Restaurants, a Private Investigator, the sponsor of a TV cooking show, the Dean of a Paris cooking school, & a common bookie.

Join in the fun, wear your best Columbo trench coat, and help us solve the crime during a night at The Inn.

Check-in as early as 3:00 PM and learn your part*.
